DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

10th June 2021

Introduction:

In compliance with the Directives No. BSEC/CMRRCD/2021-386/03 dated 14 January, 2021 of Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC); Shinepukur Ceramics Limited formulated a policy known as “Dividend Distribution Policy”.

The Policy is aimed to set out the criteria and parameters, which the board of directors of the company shall take into consideration at the time of recommendation for dividend.

The Board of Directors may declare interim dividend and recommend final dividend complying the Companies Act, 1994 and provisions of all Rules, Regulations, Notifications, Orders, Guidelines, etc. in force or to be enforced and issued or to be issued from time to time by Regulatory Authorities.

The highlights of the said policy are given below:

Effective Date

This policy was approved by the Company’s Board of Directors in its meeting held on 10th June, 2021 and became effective since date.

Purpose:

The purpose of the policy is to comply with the Directives of Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC).The parameters set out in the policy are applicable for declaration and distribution of dividend.

Relevant Laws and Regulations

Different legal and regulatory provisions have bearings on dividend decisions of the Company. The paragraphs below provide a brief overview of the provisions relating to dividend:

Companies Act

The Companies Act 1994, the primary legislation regulating the affairs of a company, gives power to the directors to recommend the dividend to be declared by the company which is to be approved by the shareholders in the Annual General Meeting (AGM). The shareholders however, cannot approve any dividend more than what has been recommended by the directors. It also authorizes the directors to pay from time to time, interim dividends to the shareholders if so appears to be justified by the profits of the company. The directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company, such sums as they deem appropriate, as reserve or reserves which shall at the discretion of the directors, be applied for meeting contingencies, or for equalizing dividends or for any other purpose of the company appropriate for utilization of such profits or may employ such profits in the business of the company or otherwise as they think fit. The law further provides that dividends are to be paid out of profits of the year or any other undistributed profits.

Listing Regulations of Stock Exchanges

There has been a number of listing regulations that have direct or indirect impact on dividend decisions of the company. Shares of a company is traded under different trading categories depending on payment or non-payment of dividend by a company. According to the regulations, a company shall be traded in the “Z Category” (a category with a longer trading settlement time and other restrictive conditions) if it fails to declare cash dividend for two consecutive years. Moreover, a company may among other reasons, be de-listed from the stock exchange if it fails to pay cash/stock dividend for a consecutive period of five years. The listing regulations also require a company to declare in its annual general meeting the reasons, if any for partial or non-distribution of profits as dividend and the plan for utilization of the undistributed profits if there be any.

Income Tax Law

Bangladesh Income Tax law, provides for additional tax charges to a listed company that retains more than 70% of its net after-tax profit earned in any year. According to the said provision if a company retains or transfers more than 70% of its after tax profit to reserve or any other fund, an additional 10% tax shall be payable on such retained or transferred fund. Moreover, in order to encourage cash dividend, the tax law requires that if in any income year, the stock dividend declared by a company exceeds the cash dividend, an additional 10% tax shall be imposed on the whole amount of stock dividend declared or distributed.

Key Considerations in dividend decisions

The company shall endeavour to maintain a consistent dividend over the year with appropriate consideration of factors relevant to such decisions. It is the Company's practice to declare dividend on annual basis based on annual financial performance. However, the Board may also declare interim dividend based on periodic financial results. Historically the Company declared dividend in either cash or stock or in judicious combination of cash and stock. The company intends to pursue the same policy in future depending on the operating and financial context prevailing at that time.

Multiple internal and external factors might affect Company's dividend pay-out decisions. While recommending dividend the Board of directors shall consider among others:

- Company's current net earnings; Balance of past year's losses; Accumulated distributable reserves/surplus; and Availability of free cash flows
- Potential growth opportunities and investment requirements - assessment of benefits of retention vs pay-out
- Legal and Regulatory compulsion and tax implications of retention and payout
- Any debt/loan covenants restricting dividend announcements and repayment of current maturity of debt/loan installments
- Persuasion of a target capital structure
- Funding requirement for capital expenditure/capacity expansion/modernization/replacement/rehabilitation of existing capital machineries
- Funding requirement for contingencies for natural calamities, pandemic, earth quake etc
- Funding requirement for business acquisition or need for increased working capital vs Cost of external finance
- Policy on consistency of the dividend over reasonable and foreseeable future years
- Other factors or circumstances to be considered as deem appropriate by the Board of Directors for distribution of dividend for a particular year.
